

SOUTH AFRICA HERITAGE DAY MARCH 6TH

2009, CAPE TOWN SOUTH AFRICA

March 2009: Symposium on the Shared Heritage between South Africa and The Netherlands

The symposium was opened with welcome words of the CEO of SAHRA, Ms Sibongile van Damme and the Consul-General of The Netherlands in South Africa, Mr David de Waal.

The morning program consisted of five themes. Per theme two or three presentations were given by experts in the South African heritage field to raise awareness for their field of interest. The same themes were the subjects for the afternoon break away sessions where the presentations were the starting point of the discussion.

Museums

Lecture by H.C. Jatti Bredekamp

Built Environment and Cultural Landscape

Chairperson: Fabio Todeschini

- The Challenge of Managing the Built Environment and Cultural Landscape- a specific focus on the Cape Dutch architectural heritage Beverley Crouts-Knipe, SAHRA Western Cape
- Boschendal Cultural Landscape- Dave Dewar
- Dutch Modernism in Pretoria – Burg, Moerdijk and Modernism, NJ Clarke

Maritime and Historical archaeology

Chairperson: Jonathan Sharfman

- Shared Maritime Heritage: A case for dialogue in managing Dutch wrecks in South African Waters John Gribble, Wessex Archaeology, Salisbury, United Kingdom
- Maritime Archaeology Development Programme- the Netherlands and SA Jonathan Sharfman (SAHRA), Jaco Boshoff (IZIKO), Bill Jeffery and Robert Parthesius (CIE)