

Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation between

Ministry of Natural Resources and Tourism

Ministry of Livestock, Development and Fisheries

University of Dar es Salaam

Ministry of Education and Vocational Training Zanzibar

here-after referred to as the Stakeholders

and

Centre for International Heritage Activities, The Netherlands

here-after referred to as CIE

The Stakeholders:

Recognize the importance of Phase II of the Underwater Cultural Heritage Management Programme written by CIE for the implementation of the formal theoretical and practical training programme in maritime/underwater archaeology.

Recognize the mutual interests in the fields of research, development, education, training, transfer of technology and dissemination of knowledge on a long term non-commercial basis.

Are Conscious of their role in Phase II of the Underwater Cultural Heritage Management Programme to assist their trainees in the development of a database and GIS system for selected regions and cooperate in public awareness activities for maritime heritage.

Are Aware that Phase II will last 16 months (September 2009 – December 2010) and is crucial for the 'Competent Authority' that is required under the UNESCO Convention on the Protection of Underwater Cultural Heritage 2001.

Are Committed to give the trainees selected for Phase II the possibility to attend all the training sessions and give them the opportunity to work on the programme independently in between training sessions in so called inter-training fieldwork and on the creation of a maritime heritage database. The activity plan for the trainees is attached to this MoU and approved by the Stakeholders.

Secondly, the stakeholders are committed to progressively build-up their possibilities of funding, staff and other resources during the capacity building / training programme to a stage where the 'Competent Authority' and its Maritime Cultural Heritage Programme is sustainable without external funding at the end of the programme.

CIE will commit its expertise and know-how from earlier and on-going programmes and will assist in raising funds for the implementation of the capacity building / training programme.

The Stakeholders and CIE hereby agree to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation. This Memorandum shall be effective until 01 January 2011. The terms and conditions are set out in more detail in the articles following:

Article 1

Areas of Cooperation

- Training in maritime heritage management
- Capacity building in maritime heritage management
- Development of a Maritime Heritage Database
- NAS Certificate Phases I-II-III
- Organisation of symposium on maritime heritage in Southern Africa

Article 2

Field of Collaboration

Collaboration between the Stakeholders and CIE shall be established in the field of maritime heritage management.

Article 3

Funding and Finance

The trainees selected for the maritime heritage management programme must get all possibilities of the Stakeholders to attend the training sessions and work on the programme in the meantime during the inter training fieldwork.

For the training sessions, symposium, international expertise, junior consultant UNESCO and coordination CIE the parties involved will do their utmost to find funding through several donors.

The inter training fieldwork and independent tasks for the trainees during the programme will be funded by the Stakeholders. See attachment for specification of inter training fieldwork activities. The Stakeholders will be responsible for travel costs, possible allowances and all other means necessary for the trainees to fulfil their inter training fieldwork activities as good as possible.

Article 4

Management and Administration

Negotiation, implementation and reporting on the progress concerning the collaboration shall be coordinated by the Department of Antiquities in Tanzania and CIE in The Netherlands.

Coordination of activities; issues about specific activities, including rights and obligations of each party shall be notified or communicated to the offices of the Department of Antiquities and CIE.

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective from the date it has been signed.

This Memorandum is made in seven equally authentic copies one for each of the signing parties.

For the Ministry of Natural Resources and
Tourism
Director Department of Antiquities

.....

For the Ministry of Natural Resources and
Tourism
Director National Museums
.....

For the Ministry of Livestock, Development
and Fisheries
Manager Marine Parks

.....

For the Ministry of Livestock, Development
and Fisheries
Director Tanzanian Fisheries Research
Institute

.....

For the University of Dar es Salaam
Representative

.....

For the Ministry of Education and
Vocational Training Zanzibar
Director

.....

For the Centre for International Heritage
Activities
Director

.....

Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

23 July 2009