Invitation Heritage Day Russia 19 March 2010

Dear Sir/Madam,

We have the pleasure to invite you to the Heritage Day Russia on the 19th of March, which will be hosted by the Centre for International Heritage Activities (CIE), in cooperation with The Netherlands Institute for Heritage (Erfgoed Nederland) and the University of Amsterdam.

The Heritage Day will take place at the Doelenzaal of the University of Amsterdam at Singel 425 in Amsterdam from 09.30 to 16.30 and is free of charge.

Objectives of the Heritage Day Russia
The Russian Federation is one of the eight priority countries appointed by the Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Education, Culture and Science for cooperation in the field of mutual cultural heritage. In accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding on this topic between the Russian Federation and the Netherlands (June 2009), we would like to bring together, with this day, Dutch professionals working on heritage projects with Russian colleagues and organizations. The aim of this Heritage Day is to improve and stimulate cooperation and new projects between partners in both the Netherlands and the Russian Federation.

The Heritage Day will consist of different presentations that give insight in the Russian heritage field and workshops that will be grouped in different themes: collection management and capacity building, management in built heritage, research and public awareness and the mutuality of Russian-Dutch cultural heritage. The workshops aim at formulating recommendations regarding opportunities and challenges in the international cooperation with the Russian Federation. Projects will be submitted to the 'mutual cultural heritage database'. This project database offers Dutch and foreign partners access to knowledge and expertise concerning international heritage projects.

We would kindly request you to register at: erfgoeddag@heritage-activities.nl and select a workshop in which you would like to participate in the afternoon. If you already registered, please inform us on the workshop of your choice.
